Department: Department of Languages and Literatures

Position in the educational system

The course SP1112, Spanish, web-based Basic course II (7.5 credits), is given as a freestanding course at first cycle level and may be included in a Bachelor's degree with Spanish as main field of study.

The course can be part of the following programme: 1) International Language Programme (H1ISP)

Main field of studies

Spanish

Specialization

G1N, First cycle, has only upper-secondary level entry requirements

Entry requirements

General entrance requirements for university studies and the Swedish upper secondary course Spanish 3 or equivalent.

Learning outcomes

After completing the course the student should be able to:

Knowledge and understanding

- reflect on his/her own learning and the importance of the knowledge gained in the course for the surrounding society;

Competence and skills

- apply simple theoretical concepts in textual analysis;
- show awareness of the relationship between text and context and at a basic level account for this with regard to the texts that are studied during the course;

Judgement and approach

- comment and evaluate texts of different kinds critically;
- critically reflect on language learning in general and his/her own learning process in particular.

Course content

Text, Culture and Society 1 7.5 Higher Education Credit

The course focuses on the study and discussion of present-day Spanish-speaking texts including an overview of basic terminology for textual analysis. The course deals with culture and social situations in connection with the texts that are studied.

For students in the International language programme, the course is 5.5 credits. 2 credits correspond to the module Career guidance.

Form of teaching

All teaching is web-based.

Language of instruction: Spanish and Swedish

Assessment

To what extent the student has achieved the aim of the course is assessed through written tests and written assignments as well as seminars via Adobe Connect.

A student who has failed a course item is eligible for a retake exam/assignment. In connection with written assignments, supplementary assignments may be offered in order for the student to achieve a Pass grade. Such a supplementary assignment should be done within the stipulated time (normally five working days after the result has been posted). Otherwise a Fail grade will be reported.

A student who has completed an exam/assignment with a passing grade is not eligible for a retake for the purpose of receiving a higher grade. Nor may a student withdraw a test/assignment once it has been submitted for the purpose of avoiding receiving a grade for the work.

A student who has failed a test twice has the right to change examiner, if it is possible. A written request must then be submitted to the Department.

If the course has been discontinued or substantially revised, a student should be guaranteed to sit the examination on at least three occasions (including the ordinary examination occasion) during a period of at least one year based on the previous course structure. As regards internships/placement the same as above applies, with the exception that examination is offered on only one occasion.

Grades

The grading scale comprises: Pass with Distinction (VG), Pass (G) and Fail (U).

For the final grade of Pass with distinction, this grade is required on at least half of the total number of the course credits, i.e. in all at least 4 credits.

Course evaluation

The students are given the opportunity to make a written evaluation of the course. The results of the evaluation are published digitally.

Additional information

SP1112, Spanish, Web-based Basic course 1, corresponds to a fourth of the course SP1103, Spanish, Introductory course, 30 credits, and can therefore not be included in a degree together with this or one of its equivalents Introductory course in Spanish (SP1100), Introductory course I in Spanish (SP1101) and Introductory course II in Spanish (SP1102).

Equality aspects should be taken into consideration in content, literature, teaching and evaluation.
